

ATLANTA
 FACES of DESIGN

TANYA LACOURSE

Over the past twenty years, Tanya has dedicated her career to the visual arts. She relocated to Atlanta from the Northeast and started Violet Marsh Interiors because she could not help herself from talking to people about furniture, lighting, and paint color. Her aesthetic leans modern while being warm, poised, and purposeful. A collector at heart, mixing high and low, old and new, Tanya travels the world in pursuit of discovering beautiful things to imbue into her designs.

Building an authentic relationship with each client is how she transforms a novel wish list into a flawless, completed space and dreaming up inspiring rooms and bringing them to life is Tanya's greatest joy. Violet Marsh Interiors is currently working on interior projects throughout Atlanta, New Hampshire, and Maine. Projects include kitchen and bath remodels, new construction, and room makeovers. Full service and design only services are available to fit a range of priorities.
